TOP NOTES

Jiri Kulich assisted on two goals for the second time in three games. After tonight, he leads all Amerks rookies and is tied for 14th amongst all AHL rookies with 14 assists.

Brett Murray's team-leading 14th goal of the season in the first period, snapped a season-long seven-game scoring drought. He's now within one goal of tying the career-best 15 he scored last season.

With Murray's power-play goal, it marked the third straight game in which the Amerks scored on the man-advantage.

Mason Jobst and Anders Bjork each scored their seventh goals of the season 1:09 apart in the second period.

Jobst's goal was his fourth in five games, giving him a total of five points (4+1) over that span. He's now one point away of reaching the 20-point mark for the first time in his pro career.

Bjork has registered nine points (3+6) over his last 10 games since the turn of the New Year, including eight points (2+6) as part of a season-long five-game point streak from Jan. 6 to Jan. 18.

Malcolm Subban appeared in all four games against the Checkers, splitting the season series with a 2-2-0 record while totaling 134 saves on 144 shots-against.

The Amerks and Checkers split the four-game season series with a pair of wins each, with the visiting team winning each time.
